RADICALS PLANNED REIGN OF TERROR

Sought Overthrow of Government Through General Strike, Inflammatory Publications Seized in Last Week's Raids Show

"MAN WITHOUT A MASTER"

Complete Destruction of Private Ownership and "Power of Rule" Advocated in Russian Workers' Manifesto

Washington, Nov. 9. — Plans of the Union of Russian Workers to bring about an overthrow of the government through a general strike are revealed in documents seized in the nation-wide raid of federal authorities Friday and Saturday nights and made public tonight by Assistant Attorney General Garvan.

With the government overthrown and everything "wiped from the earth that is a reminder of the right to private ownership of property," the Russian workers, according to their manifesto, looked forward to "the magnificent, beautiful form of man without a God, without a master, and free of authority."

Inflammatory Documents Seized.

The documents and publications obtained in the raid, officials said today, are of the most inflammatory nature and make no effort to conceal the union's program of destruction and death to achieve its ends. Most of the material made public tonight is of such a nature as to cause ordinary newspaper reprinting it to be barred from the mails.

Included among the documents seized, all of which were printed in Russian, is "Novomirsky-Manifesto," an anarchist manifesto. This publication, the most recent put out by the union, was said by Mr. Garvan to be the most dangerous piece of propaganda ever disseminated by any radical organization in the United States.

The manifesto outlines the purpose of the movement inaugurated by the union as "complete destruction of private control of natural resources and capital and complete destruction of power of rule and the institutions vested with power to enforce rule one man over another."

Under the caption of "What Should Our Means of Carrying on the Struggle," the manifesto says:

Armed Revolt Advocated.

"What must we do, the vanguard of the proletariat? We must consciously hasten the elementary movement of the struggle of the working class; we must convert small strikes to general ones and convert the latter into armed revolts of the laboring masses against capital and state."

"At the time of this revolt, we must take the first favorable opportunity to proceed to an immediate seizure of the means of production and all articles of consumption and make the working classes the masters in fact of all general wealth. At the same time, we must mercilessly destroy all means of governmental authority of class domination, liberating the prisoners, demolish prisons and police offices, destroy all legal papers pertaining to private ownership of property, all field certificates of indebtedness—in a word, we must take care that everything is wiped from the earth that is a reminder of the right to private ownership of property. To blow up bridges, gendarmes and police administrations, shoot the most prominent military and police officers, must be the important concern of the revolt working people. In the work of destruction, we must be merciless, for the slightest weakness upon our part afterwards costs the working class whole seas of needless blood."

amous Irish Unionist Among Radicals Caught

New York, Nov. 9. — Thirty-seven suspected of leadership in subversive activities were held on various charges today after state and city officers had finished questioning the 99 and more who were bagged late at night in the biggest raid New York ever saw.

The three prisoners regarded as the most important are: Big Jim Larkin, former head of the Irish Transport Workers' union and a socialist, charged with inciting to anarchy; Henry Pearl, 35, described as leader of the communist party in his assembly district, charged with violation of a law prohibiting the carrying of arms; Benjamin Gilow, 35 years old, caught at police headquarters as a member assemblyman, charged with inciting to anarchy.

Larkin, widely-known radical, is one of the most widely-known English speaking radicals. He had a stormy career in Ireland and Ireland before he came here to New York in November, 1914. He has been in this country ever since that time. Recently, he had been seeking return, but the British government declined to receive him, as a consequence of which the Dublin unionists retained a one-day strike of protest.

MAY TAKE FINAL VOTE THIS WEEK

Senators Become Restless Over Delayed Action On German Peace Treaty

ANXIOUS FOR RECESS

Reservation Concerning Article X Will Be Contested On Floor Today

Washington, Nov. 9. — Approach of the end of the special session of congress found leaders still uncertain tonight regarding the future, with events dependent on the disposition of the peace treaty.

With members restive and impatient on a brief rest before the regular December session begins three weeks from tomorrow, pressure for final action by the senate on the treaty has increased. Some leaders believe the final vote on the treaty and adjournment may be reached next Saturday, November 15; others are predicting adjournment about November 22, and others less optimistic have views of the lapsing of the special into the regular session.

Struggle with treaty reservations will be renewed in the senate tomorrow with the sharpest contest on the reservation relating to Article X of the league of nations covenant. The usual week-end and Sunday conferences by both factions apparently developed little change in programs of procedure except an almost universal desire to hasten the final vote. In this connection, Republican leaders were reported prepared to propose closure to curtail prolonged discussion with assurances of Democratic co-operation.

An unprecedented parliamentary battle over the vote on the resolution of ratification is expected to follow the disposition of reservations. Vice President Marshall is understood to be ready to rule that a two-thirds majority must be had either to adopt or reject the treaty and that a bare majority can send it back to the foreign relations committee or the President. On this ruling, its approval or rejection, in the opinion of many, depends.

While the senate is struggling in the last throes of the treaty fight, the house plans to pass the railroad bill, which is to be reported formally tomorrow by the interstate commerce committee, taken up for consideration Tuesday, and passed late this week.

If possible, the railroad measure will come before the senate during the present session, but it is conceded generally that the permanent legislation must go over until the next session. A temporary measure, continuing the railroad's compensation, is to be passed, but whether it will be this or next month is not yet settled, according to leaders.

TOLEDO HAPPY; HAS NO TROLLEY FARES TO PAY

Toledo, Nov. 9. — Car riders who last Tuesday voted for an ouster of the street cars from the streets because they were paying six and eight cents to travel to and from their work, today were paying from 10 cents to 25 cents in automobile buses of which there was an abundance.

The Toledo Railways & Light company began last midnight to spirit the cars out of the city until not a vehicle with wheels under it was left within the jurisdiction of the city officials who were responsible for the ouster ordinance passed last June being submitted to the people.

Mayor Cornelius Schreiber himself introduced the ordinance when the company increased the fares from five cents to six cents and two cents for a transfer, to take care of an increase in carmen's wages.

The cars were removed without notice to public and city officials alike.

TO REOPEN NEGOTIATIONS.

New York, Nov. 9. — Typographical union, No. 5, whose members have gone on "vacations" during the strike and lockout in the printing industry here, tonight voted unanimously to reopen negotiations with the employing printers tomorrow and re-instate the demands for a $50 weekly wage and a 44-hour week.

The men decided that under no conditions would they arbitrate the hour question.

GEN. YUDENITCH RETREATS.

Helsinki, Nov. 9. — The forces of General Yudenitch have retreated to Waimarn station, according to a communication issued Saturday morning by the Russian northwest army.

AMMUNITION DUMP BLOWS UP.

Namur, Belgium, Nov. 9. — A large ammunition dump near Fort Dierikx blew up early this morning. There were no casualties.

German Music Again is Heard in French Capital

Paris, Nov. 9. — Wagner was selected to represent German music, the presentation of which was resumed yesterday at the Pas-de-Loup concert, the Meistersinger overture being rendered, marking the definite return of the Teutonic classics.

Two persons among the audience audibly protested. A gray-bearded man, in the dead silence preceding the opening of the overture, rose and drew attention to the war. A woman also made a somewhat unintelligible protest. Both were hurried out by guards who had been prepared for such occurrences. A score of persons had previously left the building.

AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION TODAY

Increase in Dues Proposed in Order To Finance Weekly Magazine

Minneapolis, Nov. 9. — Increase in dues said to be necessary to continue publication of the American Legion Weekly, will be recommended at the opening session here tomorrow of the legion's first convention, it was announced tonight.

The proposed increase was one of four recommendations adopted previously by advanced committees and discussed tonight by the 2,000 delegates already assembled as representatives of 1,000,000 former soldiers, sailors, marines, and women war veterans.

The other three proposals to be presented tomorrow are: Selection of 19 convention committees by state delegations. Adoption of a brief tentative program for the organization business of the convention. Retention of state chairmen to act as an executive committee for handling controversies, their recommendations to be submitted to the entire convention.

Appeal to War Veterans.

New York, Nov. 9. — Appeals to veterans of the world war to aid in suppression of radicals which menace the nation were made at a meeting held here today to commemorate the signing of the armistice.

At one meeting, the armistice day service was combined with a memorial service for the "overseas dead" of the 77th division. This was at the seventh regiment armory, where Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, was the principal speaker.

"Our dead overseas," he said, "have left a precious legacy to these survivors; the protection of the nation from those who would attack with the weapons of hate, anarchy and disorder."

Chaplain Francis P. Duffy, of New York's "Fighting 69th," speaking at services at the 71st armory which were attended by Major General John F. O'Ryan and his staff, declared "returned soldiers are now confronted with the duty of stemming the tide of dissatisfaction which might menace the progress of the nation."

SHIPS IN TROUBLE OFF NOVA SCOTIA

One Believed To Have Foundered, Rescue Schooner Being Unable To Locate It

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 9. — One steamship is believed to have foundered and four others are in distress tonight in Nova-Scotian waters.

The American steamship Polarland, which was abandoned off the Cape Breton coast at 1 p. m. today, had not been found late tonight by the steamer Kanawha, which went to her assistance, nor had any of the boats containing the vessel's crew of 50 men been picked up.

When the crew abandoned the Polarland she was about 75 miles off Cape Breton. They believe the steamer sank soon after.

The Kanawha should have reached the spot given by the sinking Polarland before dark, but the rescue ship wireless tonight for specific information as to the Polarland's location when last heard from. The request for instruction is taken here to mean that the Polarland has gone down.

The Greek steamship Platea is ashore at Sable island, the steamship Greystone is in trouble off Sable island, the Telemachus, a coal boat, called for help off Cape Breton and another unidentified craft replied that she could not go to the Polarland's assistance as she was in distress also.

New York, Nov. 9. — The steamer Polarland had been operated as a refrigerated ship by the West India Steamship company of this city, of which R. R. Stoddard is president. The vessel, of 1,120 tons, was commanded by Captain Wheeler.

DEMAND BAN ON RUSSIA BE LIFTED

Thousands Attend Protest Meeting In New York; Secret Service Agents Active

COAL STRIKE UPHELD

"No Law In The Land Can Compel Miners To Return," One Speaker Says

New York, Nov. 9. — More than 10,000 persons filled Madison Square Garden tonight to demand lifting of the Allied blockade of Russia, but discussion was not confined to Russian affairs. American labor troubles and raids on radical headquarters came in for their share of attention.

The meeting was arranged by the People's Freedom union, and several hundred policemen and detectives were seated in the audience. Their presence was noted by Dudley Field Malone, who presided.

"If the representatives of the department of justice and the Lusk committee are seated comfortably, we will proceed," he said. Cheers later greeted his assertion that "with all due regard to the process of law, there is no court in the United States which can compel the striking coal miners to go back to work."

James H. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, was the chief speaker. He voiced a threat of a general strike in that state, declaring there is "no such thing as law and order in Pennsylvania, as the officials are not obeying the laws."

Labour Ready For "The Day."

"Unless the officials of Pennsylvania uphold law and order, the day will not be far distant when we will tie up the state industrially," Maurer declared. "The leaders of union labor in the state met and decided that if officials failed in their duty they would leave to the executive committee of the State Federation of Labor the naming of the day."

Maurer declared "the first thing we need to Americanize foreigners is to educate official Washington and Americanize the newspapers."

Prolonged cheers greeted a telegram from Representative William E. Mason of Illinois, who, after expressing regret at his absence, asserted presence of "American troops in Siberia without a declaration of war by congress is a violation of the constitution" and "the blockade which will starve women and children in Russia this winter is a crime against humanity."

"I intend to keep up my fight in congress along these lines," the message said.

Resolutions were adopted demanding withdrawal of American troops from Russia and lifting of the Allied blockade.

How They Do It In Yonkers.

Yonkers, Nov. 9. — A clergyman and a handful of his parishioners, suddenly launched forth into the Star Spangled Banner, broke up a meeting here tonight of the "Communist Council of America," which was being addressed by Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes.

Hearing of the proposed meeting, Rev. Dr. Francis Theodore Brown, of St. Andrew's Memorial Episcopal church, arranged to have some of his flock present. When Mrs. Stokes attempted to expound the advantages of the workmen of the United States would enjoy under a Soviet form of government, the clergyman interrupted her, saying:

"All talk of a Soviet form of government or a Communist government is an impertinence."

The remark was cheered. Before Mrs. Stokes could continue, the singing of the national anthem began, quietly at first, then gradually growing in volume. After the pastor called for three cheers for the United States, the speaker left the platform and the gathering dispersed.

ANNUNZIO'S FORCES CLASH WITH GOVERNMENT TROOPS

(By the Associated Press.)
Belgrade, Saturday, Nov. 8. — There has been a clash between forces of the Italian government and Gabriele d'Annunzio's troops, in which casualties were suffered by both sides, according to a statement issued by the Serbian official press bureau today.

The statement follows: "In a sanguinary skirmish between Italian government troops and Gabriele d'Annunzio's forces, the government troops suffered considerable losses, including one captain. D'Annunzio's troops lost one man killed and several wounded. A telegram received from Tagrad said there is much dissatisfaction among D'Annunzio's soldiers because of scant food and that there is little military discipline."

TO TRAIN AT LAUREL HALL.

Indianapolis, Nov. 9. — Walter R. Fox of Dover, N. H., well-known grand circuit horseman, today signed a contract to take charge of training operations at Laurel Hall farms here, according to an announcement by S. A. Fletcher, owner of Laurel Hall horses.

Declaring Miners' Walkout Is Justified, Executive Council Of Organization Denounces Government's Injunction Proceedings

ASKS PUBLIC APPROVAL

Union Officials Meet In Indianapolis This Morning To Consider Court's Ultimatum That Men Return To Work

Washington, Nov. 9. — Holding that the action of the government in injunction proceedings against striking bituminous coal miners to be so autocratic as to stagger the human mind, the executive council of the American Federation of Labor declared tonight in a statement issued after a four-hour meeting that the miners' walk-out was justified, promised for the strike the entire support of organized labor, and asked aid and endorsement for it from the general public.

The Lever act, under which the government acted in the court proceedings, never was enacted to apply to workers, the council asserted, and its use against the miners was classed as "an injustice not only to workers but to all liberty-loving Americans." The action was taken without the participation of William Green, general secretary of the miners, who is a member, but all the remaining principal officers of the American Federation of Labor were present.

Statement Carefully Prepared.

The council began its session at 3 o'clock, after its members had been hastily summoned together, and the statement which formulated its action was carefully revised and rewritten by Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison, president and secretary, respectively, of the federation.

The council in its statement presented at length the history of the negotiations, which led up to and precipitated the coal strike, declaring almost in the first sentence that the "officers of the United Mine Workers did everything in their power to avert this great industrial struggle."

There were 2,200 delegates, representing 500,000 miners, seated in the convention which called the strike, the statement said. The instructions of the convention were taken through the usual committees into conference with the operators and then, the statement puts it, "our government interjected itself and applied for an injunction."

The statement characterizes this action as "invasion of the rights of miners," intended to starve the miners into submission by cutting off their strike benefits, and demands the withdrawal of the injunction secured Saturday at Indianapolis "to restore confidence in the institutions of our country and respect to courts."

"By all the facts in the case the miners' strike is justified," it concludes. "We endorse it. We are convinced of the justice of the miners' cause. We pledge to the miners the full support of all the American Federation of Labor and appeal to the workers and citizenship of our country to give like endorsement and aid to the men engaged in this momentous struggle."

Union Officials Ready For Momentous Meeting

Indianapolis, Nov. 9. — John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, tonight declared that he had agreed to comply with the order of the federal court here yesterday to call off the strike of bituminous coal miners of the country before 5 p. m. next Tuesday evening. "Statements to the effect that I shall or shall not comply with the mandatory proceedings of the injunction," he said, "are premature."

PROTESTANT CHURCH CAMPAIGN.

New York, Nov. 9. — A national campaign to arouse interest in the inter-church world movement of North America by means of newspaper and out-door advertising will be undertaken next spring, was announced here tonight. In preparation for the campaign, in which a dozen leading Protestant denominations are associated, a series of three-day extension courses will be given in every state to instruct clergymen and laymen in the purposes of the movement. The first course will be given at Burlington, Vt., beginning November 17, and it is expected that the 56th center of the organization will be covered by January 1.

DISASTROUS OIL FIRE.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Nov. 9. — One man was killed, a number incurred minor burns, and a loss which will exceed a million dollars, resulted from an oil fire which swept 30 acres of proven oil territory on the outskirts of Wagoner city, and destroyed a large part of that city today. Accrue in this field is owned by many eastern concerns. The fire occurred when lightning struck an oil tank.

ESTHONIANS MAY JOIN REDS.

(By the Associated Press.)
Helsinki, Saturday, Nov. 8. — Seven representatives of Estonia, headed by Foreign Minister Phip, left today for Dorpat to begin tomorrow the preliminary discussion of a league of border states and the possibility of reaching an agreement with the Bolsheviks.

AMERICAN VICE CONSUL TO SWEDEN A SUICIDE

New York, Nov. 9. — Cary R. Miller, American vice consul to Stockholm, shot and killed himself in his suite at the Waldorf-Astoria here today. The body, with a bullet hole through the right temple, was found tonight by Mrs. Miller on her return from church. By the side lay a revolver. The police said tonight they were unable to find any motive for Mr. Miller's act. Among his papers was found a passport indicating that he had planned to sail soon for Sweden.

The medical examiner later found in Mr. Miller's clothing two notes which indicated that financial difficulties had furnished the motive for his suicide. Mr. Miller was connected with an exporting firm in Stockholm.

NOSE AGAINST WORLD REVOLT.

Berlin, Nov. 9. — Gustave Noske, minister of defense, speaking at Chemnitz today, declared his disbelief in a world revolution, and added: "A revolution in America would mean that millions of people in Germany would be threatened with death by starvation."

MACARONI COMPANY'S LOSS.

New York, Nov. 9. — Fire followed by an explosion destroyed three buildings of the Atlantic Macaroni company in Long Island, causing damage estimated at $100,000.

Condensed Summary of Saturday's Telegraph News for Star Readers

The officers of the United Mine Workers of America are ordered to recall before 8 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the strike order under which more than 400,000 bituminous coal miners quit work on Nov. 1, in a mandatory injunction granted in the federal court at Indianapolis Saturday afternoon by Judge A. B. Anderson, after a hearing in which the union attorneys sought in vain to argue on the right of workers to strike. Judge Anderson said the strike was not only illegal, but that under the circumstances it approached rebellion.

Seventy-three radical headquarters in all five boroughs of New York simultaneously raided Saturday night by more than 700 city, state and federal agents seeking evidence of revolutionary propaganda. Prisoners number 500; literature seized in tons. Attorney General Palmer announces he plans to have all radicals arrested deported as quickly as possible.

Senate by vote of 50 to 35 adopts reservation offered by foreign relations committee majority, under which the United States reserves the right to be the sole judge in the event of its withdrawal from the league of nations as to whether its obligations to the league have been fulfilled.

Confidential poll of congress indicates that General Leonard Wood is strongly favored for the Republican presidential nomination in 1920. He receives more preference than all of the other candidates combined.

House interstate commerce committee completes bill providing for permanent railroad legislation, which will be presented for consideration in the house beginning Tuesday. No anti-strike provision included in bill, despite many efforts to have such an amendment inserted.

More than two-thirds of striking New York pressmen returned to work Saturday, thus virtually ending the unauthorized walkout. Resolution introduced in house would direct state department to take immediate steps to have the Mexican government reimburse those who paid the ransom for the bandits for the release of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, Mexico, who was kidnapped.

FIVE SPOTS GAIN VICTORY.

Defeat Fleischmanns High School

Team in Close Game, 21 to 20.

In a close and fast game at Firemen's hall, Fleischmanns Saturday evening, the Five Spots basketball team of this city defeated the Fleischmanns High school aggregation by the score of 21 to 20. In the first half of the game, the visitors apparently could not become accustomed to the unfamiliar court and as a result at the end of the round the score of 12 to 4 against them. The Oneontans came up strong in the last period, however, and virtually swept the Delaware county boys off their feet, tying the score—20-20. In the last few minutes of play, Gregory, that boy who likes to shoot foul baskets—and knows how, too—got the winnups tally for Oneonta, a foul having been called on one of the opposing players.

This gave the Five Spots the victory,

21 to 20.

Manager Perry, of the local team, states that there was a large crowd present at the game. He found the Fleischmanns team to be composed of sportsmanlike young men who made a very favorable impression upon him.

Gregory and Thomas were largely responsible for the Five Spots' victory, while Shaver starred for Fleischmanns. Gregory put the ball into the basket seven out of the eight times he shot foul, which is indeed a creditable record.

MONEY PIVOTAL POINT OF WEEK ON EXCHANGE

Important Industrial and Political Events Forgotten in Financial Developments

New York, Nov. 9.—Money was the pivot around which this week's stock market revolved, sometimes with furious rapidity. Important industrial and political events were forgotten or ignored in progressive financial developments which pointed to a world-wide tightening of credit.

The advance in discounts by the Federal Reserve bank was accompanied by broad intimations against the excessive use of capital for speculative purposes. This was followed by the virtual depletion of time money, higher rates for bank acceptances, and an advance, the first since early in 1917, of the Bank of England's rate.

The several episodes were sufficient to effect a sharp revision of speculative estimates, but the recession gathered fresh momentum when local banks began to curtail loans. Call money several times opened at 12 percent, the highest initial rate of the year, and twice mounted to the year's maximum of 20 per cent., large sums being loaned at the latter quotation.

Selling naturally centered in steels, equipments, motors and oils, together with other stocks of less definite description, rails most of the time displaying conspicuous strength.

Extreme reactions of 5 to 20 points in the most volatile shares were partially retrieved, but fresh selling developed at the week-end on the more acute labor situation, the market closing with a weak and disorganized tone.

In well-informed banking circles, the opinion prevailed that money would show little if any relaxation until the turn of the year, even if funds for crop moving are understood to be well in hand.

Diverse features of the international financial situation were presented by further weakness in foreign exchange and the successful flotation of the British government and French municipal loans.

GOING A REGULAR SAHARA.

New York, Nov. 9.—New York, with its "Great White War," is the "driest" city in the country. Lieut. Col. Daniel L. Porter, supervising internal revenue agent, declared today. He said he had "sized up" the liquor situation in general and announced without qualification that there is less illicit liquor sold here in proportion to the population than anywhere else in the United States.

"This shows that as a whole New Yorkers are a body of law-abiding, good American citizens," he added.

Pot Carp a Fishing Prophet.

Meadville, Pa.—One of the best fish stories of the season comes from Crawford county, where a man owns a pot carp. Whenever he desires to go fishing he digs a few angle worms and throws them into the tank occupied by the carp. If the pot fish grabs them, the man takes up his bait and tackle and proceeds to the nearest fishing place. If, on the other hand, the carp passes them up, the man stays at home. As a result, this man returns with a fine catch every time he makes a trip to his favorite fishing stream, so he says.

FREE GREENLEAF AND WORDEN

Men Held in Connection With Bank Messenger's Murder Allowed to Continue Trip.

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 7.—Ralph Greenleaf, professional billiard player, and George Worden, his manager, who were detained by Sergeant Frank Virelli, of the state police last night by order of Coroner Bill Mix of New Haven, today were permitted to resume their tour. They were detained that the coroner might make inquiries of them in connection with the murder of Benjamin Binkowitz, a Wall Street messenger, who disappeared in August with $175,000 worth of bonds and whose body was later found in Milford.

From the office of the coroner this noon, a statement came that both Greenleaf and Worden had been detained as witnesses and Sergeant Virelli had served on them a coroner's subpoena and not a coroner's warrant as first reported. On such a document as this latter, one woman and two men are held in the jail in New Haven in connection with the murder case. The coroner's office declined to give out any further information. Greenleaf and Worden were taken to police headquarters after the former had completed an exhibition of billiards. They were held there during the night.

WHISKERS AS OLD AS HE IS

And Former County Auditor in California Is Hovering Near the Eighty Mark.

Santa Ana, Cal.—Who's got the oldest whiskers? Other laws have entered contest in the race for oldest living Americans, but Santa Ana only now jumps into the fray with a set of whiskers sixty-one years old. If anybody can beat that, let them come forward or forever hold their peace.

The proud possessor of the aged beard is J. E. Hall, former auditor of Orange county, who is now dividing his time between Santa Ana and the East. Captain Hall, a O. A. R. man, never has shaved, and the whiskers which now adorn his face are on the roots of the "fuzz" which showed up when he was in his teens.

Why Your Telephone Rates Must Be Increased

Existing rates for telephone service in the Oneonta Central Office district do not provide sufficient revenue to enable us to meet the increased cost of furnishing the service. New rates have, therefore, been filed with the Public Service commission to become effective December 1, 1919.

When the rates now in effect for telephone service were established, it was hoped that the revenue therefrom would enable the Company to meet necessary expenses while rendering adequate service and thus avoid further increases. This has not proved to be the case.

It is necessary to establish the new schedules in order to secure enough revenue to properly maintain the necessary telephone plant, pay salaries that will enable the employees to meet the present cost of living, provide new construction to meet public requirements and continue to furnish the sort of telephone service you should have.

Lion Kills Rams.

Grass Valley, Cal.—For the third time within a few days a mountain lion has raided a sheep corral in the lower part of the county. Five rams, each weighing over 300 pounds, were killed in this raid. Two of the larger animals, valued at $50 each, were dragged more than 800 yards. In the two previous raids thirty-four sheep were killed.

SALONICA.—News of the arrival of several cargoes of food consigned to the American Red Cross caused a drop of fifty percent in the price of some commodities, which had fallen into the hands of profiteers here. One Legged Parrot Is Never Peg Leg Polly Cleveland, O.—"Come on, Polly, one-two-three-jump. One-two-three-jump! One-two-three-jump!" It is Dr. F. W. Shaffer, 7612 Carnegie avenue, S. E., teaching a parrot to navigate on one leg. The other leg was amputated after the bird caught its foot in the wire of the cage and twisted the bone into a compound fracture. Polly squawks as he tries to walk, but he is progressing nicely, thank you, and his physician predicts 100 per cent navigation within the week. In his practice Doctor Shaffer has recovered combs, nails, hatpins, button hooks, and—whisper! a diamond necklace from the inwards of household pets. "But Polly probably is the most interesting patient I've ever had," the doctor added.

SAILORS SWEAR LESS

As Term in Navy Extends Profanity Decreases.

Boys New in the Service Are Most Profane, Noted Chaplain Declares.

Santa Barbara, Cal.—The profanity of the average sailor—if he is profane at all—decreases as his service in the American navy lengthens, according to Capt. E. W. Scott, chaplain of the new Pacific fleet.

"The boys who have just entered the service are usually the most profane," according to Captain Scott, who has been in the naval service 15 years, and who is, besides Capt. M. C. Gleason of the Atlantic fleet, the only fleet chaplain in the American navy.

"The boys try to make the older men already in the navy believe they, too, are old and experienced, and they think the use of profanity the surest way to accomplish the result."

The work of the chaplains in the navy, Captain Scott said, is along a "big brother" line. They deliver talks at the Sunday services aboard ship that might not be recognized by regular church attendants ashore. They speak to the men in the service in what they know are the terms of the men in the service. They try to solve their problems and to direct them to clean thinking, clean speaking and clean living.

They urge them to industry and to take advantage of the advantages offered for promotion.

Until three or four years ago, according to Captain Scott, there were only 24 chaplains in the navy. He was one of them, having some years before left the Yale divinity school for a naval post. In 1914, a ruling provided for a chaplain to every 1,200 men, so the number grew to 180 during the war. It is expected the new Pacific fleet when complete will have 20 or 25 chaplains of various religious denominations.

Captain Scott formerly was stationed at San Francisco.

EVERY COACH A SMOKING CAR

English Railroads Make Concessions to the Increasing Use of Tobacco by Women.

London.—So many Englishwomen have become confirmed smokers that in recent months railway employees have hesitated to enforce the rules against smoking in certain carriages, and it has come to be accepted that if the women passengers do not object every compartment becomes a "smoking car."

The Great Eastern railroad, whose general manager is Gen. Henry Thornton, formerly of the Pennsylvania and Long Island systems in America, is the first of the railroads to change the existing order and move for a return to prewar conditions.

By a recent order only such compartments as are designated "smoking" can be used for that purpose, and even though all the passengers may consent, no concessions are made to women. If they want to smoke they are to be referred to regular smoking compartments.

$100 A WEEK FOR YANKS HURT

Colonel Woods Tells of Opportunities for Disabled Service Men in Shipyard.

New York.—Men disabled in the United States service during the world war can become proficient shipworkers after a short apprenticeship and earn salaries ranging from $75 to $100 a week, according to a statement issued here by Col. Arthur Woods, assistant to the secretary of war.

Colonel Woods, who is in charge of the re-employment of former service men, said that the best opportunities were provided by the Submarine Boat corporation of Newark, N. J., which offers from 46 to 56 cents an hour to men while they are learning the shipbuilding trade. Members of the shipbuilding school become competent workers within six weeks to two months, Colonel Woods declared.

Men interested are asked to communicate with Colonel Woods at the war department, Washington.

A DOMINANT ISSUE.

Speaking at one of the sessions of the National Social Unit convention in Cincinnati recently, John Collier, president of the National Community Center association, asked the question:"Why is community organization a dominant issue in America today?"
And then he proceeded to answer his own question by describing the deadlock between capital and labor as demonstrated at the President's round-table sessions as resulting from the fact that organized capital was bending every effort to hold up prices and organized labor was equally uncompromising in its efforts to increase wages, while between the two the public stood with its hands up."The real American problem," he said, "is not in wages nor even hours, but in real wages, or what we call the reduction of living costs. It is in the increased purchasing power of the dollar. Community organization is needed to increase the real wage.
Nothing else will increase the purchasing power of the dollar."John Collier had made a close study of the Social Unit experiment and he had seen how democratic organization of people by small neighborhoods had enabled them to think and act as a community in all things that touch the life of the community. And he had taken up this study, he said, convinced that the plan could be made practical.It has been said in criticism of the industrial conference that the people of America were not truly represented there. Perhaps this form of community organization, as Mr. Collier suggested, will give the people a power equal to that of organized capital and organized labor, so they may have an equal voice in deciding what shall be the real wage of America.As to the Social Unit, the praise of Mr. Collier is significant. He said
"Cincinnati is doing a critical service to the nation. In the right sense of the word the Social Unit seems to me to be the most significantly conservative method of community organization that will make possible the carrying over into the twentieth century the moral, humane liberalism of our Anglo-Saxon past."The remarks of Mr. Collier will be of interest in Otsego, where the County Improvement association is now getting definitely upon its feet.

FARM MECHANICS SCHOOL.

Edinboro to Hold Gas Engine and Milking Machine School.For three days, beginning December 4th, Edinboro is to have a gas engine and milking machine school. It will be held under the auspices of the Farm Bureau with the local High school and community committeemen co-operating. An extension expert on gas engines from the State College of Agriculture will handle the subjects of gas engine efficiency and related topics. He will give demonstrations in valve grinding, cleaning, repairing, etc. Prof. Blodgett, also of the State College of Agriculture, will handle the subject of milking machines. Prof. Blodgett, for the past five years, has been spending a great deal of his time on milking machine problems and will be able to drop many new ideas even to the experienced operator.Everyone who owns or contemplates owning or operating a milking machine or gas engine, will find it worth his while to attend, is the advice of those who have at some time attended one of these schools.Each student will be charged the nominal sum of $1.00, which is pay-

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

The Innocent Bystander.

The public ought to be the great deciding factor in all issues that threaten its security through interruption of the means of production and transportation. Instead, because it is unorganized and without a spokesman it is a meek spineless bystander, with purse in hand to pay the hospital bills and after the minimum content to return to the fields where, yoked like oxen, it must plow a deeper furrow. — [Baltimore American]

That Invisible Drop

Herbert Hoover, according to report, sees a drop in food prices soon.
This is encouraging, for Mr. Hoover has a big reputation for knowing something on the subject. It will be more encouraging, however, when there is a drop visible to the consuming public. It has been told so often by the attorney general and others that prices are coming down at a time when the prices of nearly everything bought were going up, that it may be pardoned if it has suspicions.
— [Philadelphia Press]

Coolidge and Hansen.

"God send us men" is an old cry of the people in all ages. No education of the masses no wisdom of the herd, can ever replace the need of gallant, single-hearted leadership. We can thank our stars that here in America leadership is bred in the blood and bone of our ambitious, eager youth and fostered and encouraged by opportunity and reward as in no other country. We must not push our luck too far. We shall, if we are wise, take heed of the warnings, in forethought and plan further ahead.
In the meantime, let us thank God for the men who have been sent on the stroke of the hour to save us from our perils. — [New York Tribune]

The War Brides.

The last of the war brides of American soldiers have sailed from Brest and will be in this country within a short time. Nearly 3,600 of these brides have been cared for by the Young Women's Christian association in France and England and so far as is known only one of the war brides is going back to her home. These war brides have ranged in age from 15 to 55 years. — [Utica Press]

The Weather in Nebraska.

October was an extreme example of the present universal unrest. It did not go on strike. It kept on supplying us with weather. But it was as far from the weather we have a right to expect from October as our coming coal supply is apt to be from what it ought to be. Those successions of calm, hazy, yellow, just right days which we identify with October were seldom to be found this fall. Unbroken successions of showers and cold waves made a virago of our most even tempered month. Farmers sowed wheat in rubber boots. Airplanes were mired down. Not even the United States senate showed itself less true to form than this late untempered October. Even the weather is out of joint these partus times. November, the armistice month, should show improvement. Things have got to sober down some time. — [Nebraska State Journal]

uce and the consumers overcharged.

latter half—is absolutely true. — [Kan-

FELIX AND PAUL WARBURG.

From left to right, Felix and Paul Warburg, just returned from a three months' trip to Europe to study financial conditions. Paul Warburg was the vice governor of the Federal Reserve board during the war. Birth, surroundings, life long training and a keen observing brain have fitted Paul Warburg to deliver the message he brings to America on his return and which is that America must assume her share of responsibilities with the balance of the world that we must quit being extravagant and living in a fool's paradise of high prices and sudden wealth and that not only "labor" but everybody, must buckle down, decrease consumption and increase production. He also finds Europe disappointed in the Senate's delay to sign the peace treaty, including the vanquished nations who want to know "where they are at."

BAD OR GOOD ROAD TAX

OTSEGO COUNTY SUPERVISORS TO BE ASKED TO ACT.State Roads Are Costing Too Much Money—Some Pertinent Facts From Jefferson County—Good Roads for Less Money.Shall Otsego county pay a bad road tax or a good road tax? This is a question which will undoubtedly be considered by the board of supervisors at the present session. It is a question in which every citizen of the county should interest himself to the extent of forming an opinion based upon facts. Such opinion should be made known to the various supervisors.The facts are these, that Otsego county has 2,183 miles of highway of which 119.1 miles have been permanently built by state and county.
Thirty additional miles are on the map to be built on the 50-50 plan by the state and county from funds already appropriated, making a total of 149.1 miles. There will be left practically 2,034 miles of dirt roads for which no provision is made for permanent improvement. In this day of automobiles and motor trucks, can this condition be allowed to exist?
The members of the Otsego County
Improvement association say "no."
The leading plank in their program is that relating to road building and the investigations already made by them are mighty interesting and enlightening.Manager Floyd S. Barlow has recently visited Jefferson county, where he interviewed County Superintendent of Highways, Henry S. Ball, and inspected some 50 miles of the 200 miles of "county aid" roads, which have been built at an average cost of $4,500 per mile. These county aid roads are built according to the provisions of section 320-A of the state highway laws, jointly by the several townships and the county. The residents of the county are unwilling to pay a bad road tax. Mr. Ball cannot build road fast enough to suit the people under the present law so that a new plan is being worked upon. He told Mr. Barlow that the farmers living on a five mile stretch of road which is not now scheduled, have offered to give $2,000 toward its construction in order to get it next on the map.The county aid roads of Jefferson county are twenty-four feet wide, with a ten foot macadam center, five foot shoulders and two foot slopes to the ditches. They are built high so that excellent drainage is afforded, consequently the dirt shoulders become hard and admit of easy passing ofvehicles. Mr. Barlow rode on some of these highways which had been laid five years and are now in perfect condition.Superintendent Ball figures that roads built now will cost from $5,000 to $6,000 per mile (state roads cost from $35,000 to $50,000 per mile) because of increased costs. It is his plan to incorporate asphalt into the top course of stone laid on roads which will be used extensively by heavy trucks, at an additional expense of about $1,000 a mile. Funds are raised through direct taxation rather than by bond issue.Mr. Ball stated that the improved roads had not only increased enormously the volume of business done by both farmers and business men of the county, but that farm land values adjacent to them had increased at least $10 per acre. He stated to Mr.
Barlow that probably the most striking example of which he knew was that of a tract of 100 acres of excellent land without buildings for which the owner was unable to secure $5,000.
Six months after the road past it was built, $10,000 was secured for the property.If Otsego county citizens will begin now it will require from six to ten years before the boast of Jefferson county can be made, namely, that every village in the county is connected with its county seat by an improved road. Let's begin to catch up with the procession.

Lutheran Anniversary Services.

The anniversary services held yesterday morning and last evening at the Lutheran church in celebration of the founding of the church 15 years ago were largely attended and were very interesting. In the morning, the pastor, Rev. P. M. Luther, took as his subject, "What God Hath Wrought," and in his address told of the many benefits the church had both received and given during its history and urged that the future be even more noteworthy.At the evening worship, Rev. Frederick C. Frommhausen of this city, who is a student at the Hartwick theological seminary, spoke on "The Divine Essence of Temporal Power." This was one of Rev. Frommhausen's initial sermons and all who heard him will agree that he did remarkably well, bringing out many salient points in a telling way.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Frank Whitcomb, recently engaged with the Oneonta Coal and Supply company, is now with Hermon Wright at the Worcester garage as book-keeper.

—The food sale at the armory Saturday was well patronized, the sale of canned baked beans at 8 cents being large. The beans seem to give good satisfaction.

—John J. Brophy has purchased the house and lot at 9 Academy street of Stephen E. Stapleton of Albany, formerly of this city, and will occupy it as a home as soon as the present tenant can find a house.

—The River street bus line has been purchased by Mrs. Louis Driggs of Louis King, who recently purchased a big farm near Schoenectady and is residing there. Dillard VanFleet has been engaged to drive for Mrs. Driggs.

—The minstrel troupe of DeRue Brothers, composed of 25 people, was in the city yesterday enroute to Stamford, where they appear this evening. On Tuesday evening they are booked in Cooperstown and on Wednesday evening they come to the Oneonta theatre.

—Earl T. Winans, who recently resigned his position with Winans Grocery company, has moved to Worcester and is now engaged as clerk with his brother-in-law, Louis Wade, one of the merchants of that village. Mr. Winans has purchased the Germond house on Maple street in that village. He will, however, retain his house and lot in this city.

—B. E. Pudney of Sidney, who was engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in France, gave a fine address in the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church last evening. He has traveled much over the battlefields and visited many ruined cities of Northern France. A large audience listened to his vivid description of what he saw. The choir was assisted by Messrs. Wells, Osborn, Maples, and Johnson of Oneonta, and Mr. Collar of West Oneonta, and the praise service before Mr. Pudney's address was appreciated.

D. & H. EMPLOYEES FEDERATION.

Fifty Delegates Representing 4,500 Shopmen in Session in Oneonta.

Beginning with a special session Sunday in the Knights of Pythias hall in this city, representatives of the shop employees of the entire Delaware & Hudson system are holding a meeting in Oneonta for the purpose of considering the latest agreement as to hours, employment, wages, etc., with the Federal Railroad administration. The special meeting yesterday will be followed by a general one today at the same place.

Ell Dickinson of Carbondale, Pa., is president of the federation, and every division of the D. & H. is represented, delegates being present from all shops between Carbondale and Route's Point. There are fifty delegates in attendance, representing a total of about 4,500 shop employees.

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR

Urging Citizens of Oneonta Earnestly to Co-operate in Thrift Campaign.

To the People of the City of Oneonta:

Whereas, The United States government has deemed it necessary to offer a new form of securities, called Treasury Savings Certificates, to be applied toward meeting the final obligations entailed by the great war, and

Whereas, The tremendous preparations carried on during 1917 and 1918 in anticipation of continued warfare, meant large expenditures for which the people of America still owe several billions of dollars and that these preparations played an important part in bringing the fighting to a sudden end last November, thus saving the lives of hundreds of thousands of brave Americans, and

Whereas, The Treasury department has issued an appeal to the loyal people of Oneonta city to throw their weight into a campaign to help put the nation on an economic basis by encouraging the general practice of thrift, and assist the federal government by becoming thrift citizens and purchasing "for themselves Treasury Savings Certificates issued in denominations of $100 and $1,000. These certificates are on sale this month at $84.40 for $100.00 certificates and $844.00 for $1,000.00 certificates. They represent absolute safety as obligations of the United States government and are guaranteed to increase steadily in value until January 1, 1924, when they mature. They are at any time redeemable for cash upon ten days' notice and can be procured by application to any bank or the post office.

Therefore, I urge a generous response to this appeal of the government through the Federal Reserve bank and local committees.

(Signed) A. E. CEFERLEY,

Mayor of the City of Oneonta.

SHIPMENT OF RAINBOW SUGAR

Oneonta Housewives This Week May Gratify Their Fondness for Colors and in the Much Wanted Commodity.

If you are so fortunate as to secure a couple of pounds of sugar this week you need not be surprised that rather than the pure white granules to which you are accustomed you find that yellow and bluish ones are mingled in what is known as "rainbow" sugar, and you should not blame your grocer if he can provide no other. Sugar is now allotted by the distribution committee of the federal sugar administration and only such amounts and in such form as the committee determines can be secured by the wholesalers.

The firm of J. O. & G. N. Rowe has received its October allotment and this morning the city's share of this will be distributed to the retailers. It will consist of 12,000 pounds of "rainbow" or an average of a pound per person. It will be distributed at a price that will make the retail price around 14 cents.

While Oneonta housewives have a fondness for color in preparing viands for the table, it remains to be seen whether "rainbow" will be popular with them. It is said to be of excellent quality and in every way fitted for use, but the color will remain still.

No information has been given as to the November allotment either as to the amount, in what form it will come, or when it may be expected. The fact that the government hopes to see the shortage relieved and cities that 60,000,000 pounds have been delivered to the refiners, does not warrant anything but careful use, as this would afford but a half pound to each individual—or about one-third of the normal consumption for a week.

Brutt's Camp House Burglarized.

Claus Brutt, the well-known local merchant tailor, was unpleasantly surprised Saturday when he found upon entering his camp house at Goodyear lake that it had been thoroughly ransacked. Mr. Brutt had not visited the house, which is known as "The Zeyern," for several weeks but at the time of his last visit everything was in good shape. Saturday's call revealed that all the dishes, carpets and bedding had been made away with and the camp left in a general disorderly condition. Mr. Brutt at once notified the local police, who are investigating the situation. Mr. Brutt's loss probably will reach a good-sized sum.

Bays Oneonta Residence.

Arleigh C. Hendry, recently of Kortright, has purchased of Attorney Everett B. Holmes the house and lot at 4 Franklin street, known as the Stevens property, recently owned by estate of M. W. Sullivan, formerly trainmaster of the Susquehanna division. Mr. Hendry will, it is understood, at once occupy the property as a residence.

$2,500 DAMAGE TO BUTTS HOME

CITY FIREMEN FIGHT STUBBORN BLAZE CAUSED BY DEFECTIVE CHIMNEY.

Grand Street Residence of Head of Well-Known Local Trucking Firm Saved After Three Hours' Heroic Work—Loss Covered by Insurance.

One of the most stubborn and hard-to-get-at fires with which the city fire department has had to cope in the residential district in several years occurred yesterday morning at the residence of Harry J. Butts, 21 Grand street, causing a loss of about $2,500. The fire originated in the roof of the kitchen, from a defective chimney and spread rapidly till it looked as though the entire roof would be burned off. The fire was checked, however, before it did much damage to the main part of the house.

The fire department was summoned to the Butts' residence at 11:40 a. m., by a telephone alarm stating a fire was in progress at that place. They made a quick response, and arriving at the scene, laid a line of hose from the nearest hydrant. They first attacked the blaze with chemical, and a line of water, which was quickly supplemented by the second line of water hose till the fire was under control.

Firemen first attacked the fire, which was burning fiercely under the kitchen and were handicapped here for some time, owing to the fact that it was necessary to tear off the tin roof from this part of the building before the fire could be reached, this process being rendered practically impossible on account of the dense smoke arising from the roof, which had been painted recently with a tarred preparation.

The roof of the kitchen was entirely destroyed, as the greater amount of fire was located here, making it necessary to tear away the greater part of it in order to get at the fire. The flames also spread to the main portion of the house, setting fire to the timbers under the roof, and making it necessary to open up a part of the roof on the main portion of the residence. Owing to the fact that the fire had gained such a headway under the roof before the department arrived, it was necessary to use a large quantity of water which ran down through the partitions in the rear of the house, causing some of the ceilings to fall.

Mr. Butts stated that he had insurance to the amount of $4,000 on the house and contents. Much of the furniture was carried out of the house, but as is the case in most fires, this was probably damaged to quite a bit.

A larger loss would have occurred without doubt had it not been for the stubborn tenacity with which the firemen fought the blaze, it being utterly impossible to see them on the building at times owing to the dense smoke which entirely hid them from view of the spectators present. They are surely entitled to a great deal of credit for the manner in which they extinguished the fire.

MARGARET ANGLIN COMING

Noted Actress to Visit Oneonta Previous to Her New York Appearance.

Manager Moore announces that he has secured a big guarantee, Miss Margaret Anglin, supported by the same cast that will appear in New York, in Miss Anglin's new play, "The Woman of Bronze." In speaking with a Star reporter Manager Moore says it is hard to secure the big stars and the better plays for the smaller cities, but I have confidence in our patrons and feel that they have confidence in us. We aim to give our patrons the best obtainable and for this reason we do not hesitate to meet the guarantee Miss Anglin's manager requires to bring her to Oneonta, for I feel sure her performance will be well patronized. It is seldom we are fortunate enough to secure the original cast, star and production, previous to its New York appearance.

HOME ECONOMICS MEETINGS

Today and Tomorrow at River Street, East End School and Woman's Club.

There will be a meeting this evening of the Oneonta Home Economics club at the River street school house at 7:30 o'clock. Miss VanCleave of Cooperstown, assistant county demonstrator, will give a demonstration of drying and dry cleaning. A second meeting will be held at the Woman's club rooms Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. The demonstration will be of the serving of winter vegetables and the utilizing of leftovers. The latter demonstration will be repeated Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the East End school.

CITY WILL MAKE PROTEST

At Unreasonable Requirements of Inspector of Industrial Commission—Impossible to Secure Workmen for Jobs Demanded in Long Time.

As a result of the visit to the city last week of an inspector of the State Industrial commission these are many heads of business enterprises and owners of real property used for mercantile or manufacturing purposes who are up in arms, so to speak, at the arbitrary and in some instances at least unreasonable requirements. Scarcely a business place where women are engaged that escaped the microscopic eyes of the inspector and it is quite probable that there are not sufficient plumbers in the city to complete all the changes in toilets and lavatories within a year's time. Nor are there, it is believed, any plumbers that can be secured to come and assist in making the changes demanded within the space mentioned.

While The Star is not in possession of definite information as to the cause of the sudden and extensive regulations imposed upon the city, it is understood that the legislature last year authorized the establishment by the industrial commission of a bureau in charge of women in industry, after the fashion they have at Albany of never missing a chance to create a new bureau with its retinue of employees if the least excuse can be found. It is the changes demanded where one or more women are employed that has caused so much vexation. Other changes, however, are required in places where men only are employed. While neither The Star nor our citizens generally are other than in perfect accord with the reasonable regulations for the protection of women in business pursuits, some complaints are not without justification, and it would seem that every project though employing perhaps but one female and some of these only at odd periods during the year is brought within the regulations necessarily required where a number are engaged.

The subjects being investigated by not only those affected but by the officials and it is not unlikely that a protest will be made at Albany and not improbable that the other third class cities may unite in making one that will be heard. This idea of subjecting every little enterprise to a considerable outlay to make provision neither sought nor desired by a single employe, often resulting in depriving the one individual of employment, seems unreasonable and neither required for the public health nor safety.

Off for the Adirondacks.

Col. Franklin S. Hutton, Frank H. Monroe, H. A. Fearsall and Lester S. Hopkins left yesterday for McKeever on a deer hunting trip to remain until the season closes. The trip was made in the car of Col. Hutton.

Sample Garment Sale
All New Fall Style
DRESSES
$15.79
Less Than Half Price

The garments which go into this sale were used in the showroom of one of the largest and most fashionable manufacturers of women's apparel in the country as samples to create sales for representative lines.

If we didn't tell you they were samples and used for this purpose you never would have known it; there is nothing about them to indicate that they have been utilized for such a purpose. No signs of continuous handling are evident on them anywhere; no, not even an unnecessary wrinkle; indeed, they look as spic and span from every point of view as if they just came from the pressing board.

These are "Ruby Quality Dresses" and materials are Silk, Georgette, Serge, Gabardine, Wool Jersey, Panlette, etc.

The regular value of these dresses is $20, $25, $30 and $35. Your choice for $15.79.

This is Children's Book Week

HAVE you ever stopped to think how much time we spend in planning what we shall put on and in our children's bodies and how little in planning what we shall put in their minds?

They go to school, to be sure, but that is for only five hours a day approximately 185 days in the year. What of the years before they begin to go to school, what of the hours and days each year in which they are not under instruction? Have we any deliberate plan to care for the mind's growth as we care for the body's?

It is just as important that children shall read good books as it is that they shall learn to read at all. It would be hard to find any one who would declare that it is unnecessary for children to learn to read. Yet reading in itself is not the end we seek, but only a means to that end. The goal of all education is the enrichment of life, and a child's reading carefully guided will deepen and strengthen his future ability to make the most of himself and his opportunities.

To really love books so that they may be woven into the warp and woof of his life a child should have his own individual library, which grows year by year with his growth, yet which contains friends to whom he will return time and time again, secure in the knowledge of a happy companionship full of pleasant association. A large number of books is not essential to have, but a few should be added each year and the standard of choice should be kept high.

BISHOP NELSON AT ST. JAMES'

Head of Albany Diocese Preaches Inspiring and Thoughtful Sermon in Oneonta Yesterday — Money Not All, But a Greater Thing Is Organized, Energetic Christian Endeavor.

There was a large attendance of the membership and congregation of St. James' Protestant Episcopal church on the occasion of the annual visitation by Bishop Nelson at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Bishop, who is making a tour of the western towns of the Albany diocese, put in a busy day yesterday, officiating at Oneonta in the morning, at Oneonta in the afternoon and at the conclusion of the service here returning to Sidney, where he preached last night.

Taking for his text, the Parable of the Talents, as given in Matthew, Bishop Nelson considered the different ways of looking upon the responsibilities of life—one welcoming them because opportunity is given to show himself a man, and another like the man with the single talent neglecting the opportunities afforded. The first is the type of the successful man. The other is peevish, dissatisfied and unsuccessful.

The Parable of the Talents, he said, brings up the universal law of progress in life, and in religious matters no less than others, there is on the one hand progress and on the other a religion bound by superstition and which is not vital in the present age. It is important for us to ask whether our religion is merely an inheritance or a tremendous determination on the part of men to move forward and to play their part in the new era of the world, and in newness of life.

To the movement approved for church activities at the recent church convention at Detroit, the Bishop gave but qualified assent, saying that the principal feature of it was for the raising of a large sum of money, which seemed to him attacking the problem from the wrong end. There will be no message in this diocese asking the congregations to do anything beyond the scope of individual ability in these difficult times. The great thing is not to ask merely for money, but to work for progress, for the deepening of the spiritual life, for more morality, greater service for God and man. In that splendid spiritual advance, money matters will take care of themselves.

In conclusion he urged a closer study of the bible, more faith and courage and such fine inspiration as comes from the life of Christ, and prayer for those things which are the soul's worthy and sincere desire. And if greater progress comes in the church and in the world at large, it will be because of our yearning to make progress in the spiritual life.

Married in Scranton.

Mrs. Rosa A. Davis of 2 Telford street and Arthur A. Short of 19 Park avenue were married on Wednesday of last week in Scranton, Pa., by Rev. Charles J. A. Reichardt of that city. AN APPEAL FOR BOY SCOUTS

Commissioner Huntington Urges Citizens to Promote Excellent Work—Help the Boys Get a Home.

A local council of the Boy Scouts of Oneonta has been organized to promote the work among the boys. There are now four troops holding meetings each week or every other week. At present the boys have no regular meeting place, which is a great handicap. The weather is getting cold, winter is coming on, and the regular meetings of the different troops must be held indoors. The boys need a regular home. Money is needed for various reasons. We desire to purchase camping equipment for another summer, so that the boys can go camping. We want to locate permanently in permanent quarters, and must have money for heat, light, and furniture. Will you help? You can become an associate member of the local council by paying one dollar ($1.00) and receiving a membership card. We want five hundred (500) members. Cards may be obtained from either bank, or from K. W. Goldthwaite at the Corner Book store.

A dividend has been declared from the surplus of the Fourth of July Celebration fund. It has been suggested that all of those good people, receiving such a dividend, if they believe in the Boy Scout movement and want to help, should endorse the check and turn it over to Lewis H. Atwell, treasurer of the local council, at the Wilber National bank. Your help is requested. The boys help out whenever possible in campaigns for W. S. S. Liberty Loan bonds and in countless other ways. Will you show that you believe in the movement, and that you want to help the boys?

Frank C. Huntington, Scout Commissioner.

THE LUCEY-STEARN'S CONCERT.

Talented Soprano and Flutist Appear at Theatre Tonight.

The general interest which is taken by the public in the concert which is to be given at the Oneonta theatre this evening by Leola Lucey, a young metropolitan soprano of unusual ability and Osborne Stearns, who has earned a fine reputation as flutist is shown by the very large number of application for tickets, practically exhausting the theatre accommodations.

Much credit is due Messrs. M. C. Dales and L. D. Slade, who are the Edison agents in Oneonta, for this complimentary entertainment, which is given at their individual expense alike for artists and theatre.

Appreciate Assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Butts desire through The Star to express their deepest thanks to the firemen, neighbors and all who rendered any assistance in the earnest efforts to save their home and personal effects from destruction in the fire of Sunday morning.

"I certainly did look funny peering over those reading glasses."

"Well, if there isn't that old drawing daughter made of me when I was wearing those bothersome reading glasses! What a revelation to see ourselves as others see us!"

"I realize now how comical I appeared ducking my head to squint over my glasses when I wanted to see objects a few feet away—and what a nuisance to continually put them on and take them off all day long!"

"But that experience is ended now that I'm wearing Kryptoks. I can see both near and far objects clearly. I never have to remove my Kryptoks for any cause whatever. With them I see young and look young."
